The 3-month course includes:

- 6 thorough email responses/appraisals
- 2 hrs max telephone support at set times if required
- a wealth of leads, links, resources and information by mail, cd, or email
- challenging assignments set to meet agreed and specific objectives
- An 'end-of-term' report at the end of the 3 months
- Where appropriate, photographic examples as inspiration throughout course

The 3 month period is taken as one block without breaks unless exceptional circumstances arise.

You can also customize your own course by splitting the 3-month period between 2 or 3 (max) different modules.

Students must please bear in mind that technical issues specifically related to individual camera models, and similar equipment issues cannot be addressed within these courses.

Student benefits:

Advice, appraisal, project development, portfolio advice, publishing and exhibition advice, market news & information, students can work when they want & at own speed - perfect to incorporate into modern busy lives.

---

Artists, sculptors, and craft-workers Workshops in photography

---

Photograph your own 2D artwork

1 day practical workshop covering lighting, equipment, photography for gallery submission, for brochure and promotion, accurate exposure reading, and much more 1 day    £140

---

Photograph your own 3D artwork (pots, sculpture etc)

1 day practical workshop as above with special emphasis on lighting small scale 3D in home and studio 1 day    £140

---

Digital restoration and retouching tuition

---

1 day practical workshop 1 day    £140

Thankfully, the techniques used in Photoshop to digitally restore old and faded photographs are easy to learn but regular practice and a light touch are required in order for your work to really look expert. This intensive workshop shows how to make creases, cracks, spills and tears invisible to the naked eye, and how to give new life to those old, faded photographs. Ideal for those who wish to archive their family history or present a gift of montaged images.

* follow-on day bookable at time of first session for only £75
